

Until further notice, all events and activities conducted within the church building have been cancelled or postponed.

Many organizations and groups are meeting virtually. Please check with your group leader to see if there is an alternate method of meeting.

Stay safe!